

January is “National Thank You Month.” Take a minute and create a list of everyone who you could send a thank you card/letter. (This doesn’t have to be for a gift.) Select at least one of these people and write them a card or letter.